REAPERS AND MOWERS.
THE BUCKEYE
REAPER AND MOWER
IT IS A TWO WHEELER MACHINE—THE wheels supporting the frame are both driving wheels, and drive the knives together, or independently.
3d. There are no cogs in the driving wheels.
4th. The known reason why the Machine is backed, is as easy backed as an empty cart.
5th. The cutter bar is attached to the frame by a double hinge joint, and allows an independent action either end of the bar without affecting the other.
6th. The cutter bar is easily raised to pass obstructions by means of the lever, which is always under the control of the operator.
7th. No. 10. The cutter bar is in front of the driving wheels, and seat in rear, thus enabling the driver to see the operation of the cutter, without interfering with his driving, and avoiding those dreadful accidents which have frequently occurred when the seat is directly over or in front of the cutter bar.
8th. The cutter bar is folded across the frame for transporting—thus making it as portable as a buggy.
9th. The wheel or cutter bar, next the frame prevents clogging when running over cut grass, and also relieves the draft.
10th. It can be changed from a Reaper to a Mower, and vice versa in fifteen minutes.
11th. The platform does not support either the reel or raker.
12th. The reel is supported from the frame of the Machine.
13th. The raker has a comfortable saddle seat over the frame of the Machine.
14th. No Lumber! The raker does not use a frame. It took the frame of a Mower, and as a Combined Machine, at the Indiana and Ohio State Fairs for 1864.
15th. It will run over three hundred pounds lighter than any other Mower or Reaper.
16th. We challenge the WORLD to beat the "BUCKEYE".
Give us your orders early, as we cannot obtain any more Machines than we have now bought, as the manufacturers have ordered for three thousand more Machines than they can possibly make.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
A FACT
It is a Bye.
In the year 1842 Mr. Mathews first prepared the VENE-TIAN HAIR DYE, since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give entire satisfaction.
The VENE-TIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world.
Its price is only Fifty Cents, and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye in those usually sold for a dollar.
The VENE-TIAN DYE is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.
The VENE-TIAN DYE works with rapidity and certainty, the hair requiring no preparation whatever.
The VENE-TIAN DYE produces any shade of color that is desired—one that will not fade, or wash out—one that is as permanent as the hair itself. For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

A Voice From Vicksburg.
Vicksburg, Miss., Aug. 9, 1863.
Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: I am happy to state to you that I have used your valuable Codon Bitters with great benefit to myself in general debility and prostration of my system, produced by the unhealthy and miasmatic influences of the Mississippi River and around Vicksburg, having been with Gen. Grant's army throughout its whole Southern campaign. I cordially recommend its use to all persons who are exposed in unhealthy climates.
Agent U. S. Sanitary Commission.
LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 16, 1863.
On the 23d of July last I submitted, through an agent of mine, to the Medical Director of the Department of the Cumberland, a sample of my Codon Bitters for his inspection, and requested, if after analysis he found it meritorious, to sanction and approve its use among our soldiers.
The following is the Medical Director's reply, and also Gen. Grant's permission to ship 300 doses of mine to be sold to Soldiers.
"I am satisfied that Codon Bitters will do no harm to any one, if taken properly and in moderation. I see no objection to its use, and I hereby permit to dispose of it to Soldiers."

From New York.
New York, May 27.—The Herald gives the following account of the struggle for Taylor's bridge, across the North Anna.
When my last dispatch was written, a considerable force of the enemy was disputing our passage of the North Anna.
Gen. Lee's division, of Longstreet's corps, was posted in strong earthworks along the creek and river, and seemed disposed to hold Taylor's bridge at all hazards, and poured a storm of shot and shell from their batteries, when Gen. Birney's division advanced, and Col. Reeves, with the 1st and 2d brigades, made an assault upon the enemy's works.
At 6 P. M. on the 25th the rifleman of the enemy poured a deadly fire into our ranks, when our men charged upon their batteries on the high ground to the left of the bridge, and tore up their entrenchments.
The rebuff was carried at the point of the bayonet, and a considerable number of rebels were killed in the entrenchments, and one hundred and ten captured. This assault, which was made under the immediate direction of General Birney, was a brilliant affair, and General Hancock wrote him a very complimentary letter.
The 2d and 5th Michigan, 86th and 34th New York, 99th Pennsylvania and 17th Maine suffered severely from any other regiments in the division.
The rebels when driven from the rebuff and rifle pits, retreated across the river, many swimming, the bridge being too much crowded to admit of their crossing with as much celerity as they desired. An assault upon Taylor's bridge spanning the North Anna, was made without loss of time by the 4th Maine. The bridge was carried after a sharp skirmish and the rebels driven from their position on the opposite bank.
At 11 P. M. the enemy made a sortie from his works and endeavored to retake the bridge, but after a spirited skirmish of about twenty minutes were driven back.
At midnight they made another attack with a much larger force, and drove our men from the bridge, held it some time, and made several attempts to burn it.
The 7th New York heavy artillery came to the aid of the 4th Maine, and after a short struggle we retained the bridge without further trouble until the morning.
Birney crossed the North Anna at the bridge with a division, followed by Gibson and his division, and again after by the balance of the corps.
The Herald's correspondent says:
Our losses on the 23d and 24th do not exceed 500 killed, wounded, and missing, while the rebels amount to that in killed and wounded, while we have 1000 prisoners, and a great number of arms, A special to the World, dated 11 A. M., 25th, says:
The entire army is on the south bank of the North Anna.
At 12 M. there was considerable picket firing on our center, but no artillery.
The 5th and 6th corps are advancing.
Other special to the morning papers contain nothing later than Stanton's dispatch.
The steamship City of Limerick and Westmoreland, from Liverpool, arrived here this morning.
The steamer Champion, from Aspinwall the 17th, arrived this morning, bringing $200,000 in treasure.
